2 members of the Board, Jim and John, sent me comments on the draft ASA Strategy. I captured their comments, and sent them in a response by me, on behalf of the Board. Would you please circulate my e-mail, and attachment, to the Board. I will need the Board to approve my action at the next meeting, so please add it to the agenda.

Thanks

Subject: ASA Strategy 2017-21

In response to the invitation from Adam Paker on 18 July 2016, I attach observations on the Draft ASA Strategy 2017-2021 by 2 members of the Regional Management Board of ASA South East Region. On behalf of the Board, I endorse the sentiments expressed by my colleagues.

Roger Penfold
Chairman
Regional Management Board
ASA South East Region

OBSERVATIONS BY MEMBERS OF ASA SOUTH EAST REGION MANAGEMENT BOARD ON ASA STRATEGY 2017-21 DRAFT

MEMBER 1

1. I am disappointed that the draft Strategy Objectives for 2017-21 do not include the Sport, Clubs and Competition.
2. The current objectives are: Learn-to-Swim, Participation, Volunteering, Talent, Leadership, and Sustainability.
3. I feel there should be a strategic objective to develop and support the sport of swimming (in all its disciplines) through the clubs and competition.
4. All members of the ASA are members of clubs which provide the Sport through competition and training for competition.
5. I think the ASA Sport Board is responsible for the Sport and its development and support. If this is not important enough to be a Strategic Objective, then the Sport Board is not of sufficient importance in the ASA. The Group Board will become 'The Board' of the ASA and the Sport Board will contribute at a lower level and act as a Committee.
6. There have been thirteen working groups looking at the strategy in different areas.
 - a. The 'Clubs Strategy' group has produced a strategy which sits at a lower level and is focussed on clubs.
 - b. The 'Swimming' group has produced a strategy that covers both the Talent pathway and the Competition pathway.
 - c. I do not think there have been strategy groups for the other disciplines.
7. 'Clubs' are listed in the draft objectives as Departments, these are referring to the ASA Clubs' Department, not the hundreds of clubs in the country.
8. The ASA Clubs; Department is down to support all the Strategies except Sustainability, which is one of the major concerns identified in the recent ASA Clubs' Survey. The wide range of support needed will greatly reduce the effort of the Clubs Department to support the clubs.
9. Overall I think the draft strategy reflects the move by 'ASA leaders' towards the ASA as a business and losing sight with regards to its members, the sport, the clubs and competition.

MEMBER 2

The Vision (P1) statement is lacklustre and mediocre, with no strong link to the sport of swimming (aka aquatics). A better alternative would be something like "Swimming for Success and Health" which would firmly have the sport of swimming as the most important raison d'être of the organisation.

Whilst hardly unexpected there is no mention of British Swimming (BS) despite the strong role BS has in competitive aquatics and the fact that, like it or not, the ASA's strategy must align in at least rudimentary ways, with BS, or at least state that they aim to work together to deliver results.

Furthering competitive aquatics, the reason why the ASA was organised and grew, is hardly set out clearly and in any case isn't even seen as the primary objective.

It is not clear why being the "industry leader, the most trusted Learn to Swim Authority, the most recognised authority" etc serves any real purpose. Regrettably, none of this would improve the lot of the competitive club swimmer nor the clubs.

The role of promoting excellence and governance in competitive aquatics has been almost entirely set aside in the pursuit of funding, indeed a business model, driven by participation. Again, what has the latter got to offer the competitive participants and their clubs, as no funding percolates from participation into clubs/competition?

Despite being, supposedly, the NGB for 4 aquatic disciplines, the strategy remains focussed on swimming.

There is no assessment of the benefit, nor any mention of the value proposition of the ASA's membership offer to members and clubs, as well as potential new ASA members. All that is stated is the need for more members? There is surely a case for strategy to improve the lot of EXISTING members never mind the new ones?

The strategy in respect of Counties is unclear and it might be deduced that they have no relevance. The focus seems to be on clubs with some role for networks, but the role of the latter has never been made clear in the context of clubs, regions and counties.

In the section "well-trained motivated people" section, the role of Officials is surely shared, or at least operated in conjunction with BS?

In "world leading talent system" it seems to be assumed that clubs regions and counties will do as directed. Several questions: -

- What is the process to engage these key actors?
- What is the assessment of the current gap, ie how far short of the notion of "world class talent" are we?
- How would we ever know if we have arrived?

Like many of the statements in the strategy, there needs to be a degree of quantification rather than aspirational, jargon-infested, text.

"Strong Leadership..." what is the importance of being a strong leader? Anything other than the ability to receive more government funding? The last two bullets, listed as SLT responsibility, seem vague and unquantifiable. Why bother to include them?

4th bullet of organisational sustainability is not at all clear. There should be a black and white statement that the organisation, being not for profit, will strive to demonstrate its cost-effectiveness to its stakeholders.

The most disappointing omission from organisational sustainability is the lack of democracy that has been eroded at an increasing rate over recent years. The ASA have been party, with BS, to a complete neutering of the lines of communication from the membership and both levels - ASA and BS - are seen by many in the membership as remote and incapable of acting upon the voice of the clubs, swimmers and parents.

Roger,

I am willing to act as minute taker for the Regional Board with immediate effect.

I think this would be helpful in terms of communication with Hampshire, because I am not aware of anyone from Hampshire putting themselves forward for a board seat.

I considered standing for the board myself, but decided that I would not like to compete with the three people who have to stand down.

You might like to consider co-opting me to the Board in a non-voting capacity, which would allow me to speak and express a view, but my offer to do minutes is not dependent on this.

Regards

Mike

ASA Senior Leadership Communiqué

July 2016

JMN - Jane Nickerson, NC - Nick Caplin, DJS – Damian Stevenson, JP - Jacqui Porritt, MT - Mike Thompson

GROUP STRATEGY

Strategy (JMN)

- The draft of the ASA 2017-21 strategy strands has been sent to both Boards, the Regions and staff members for review and feedback. A version of the Strategy document will be reviewed at the Joint Boards meeting on the 6th September, and then shared at the ASA Council in October.

MORE PEOPLE LEARNING TO SWIM

Learn to Swim (JMN)

- The ASA, as requested by Government, has now established working groups, as a response to the government's commitment in Sporting Future: A New Strategy for an Active Nation, to raise the standards of school swimming. These two groups are looking at the current challenges of delivering school swimming, and will make recommendations on how to address and overcome these challenges. A final report will be submitted to the government in the autumn.

Workforce Development (JMN)

- Two new level 2 synchronised swimming tutors have completed their training with another trainee due to complete by end of August. This has tripled the number of level 2 synchronised swimming tutors across the country.
- We have reinstated an experienced level 2 water polo tutor following a break from delivering, providing significant support for the continued development of the sport.
- The ASA Awarding Body have signed an awarding organisation partnership agreement with CIMSPA. More information can be found at <http://www.cimspa.co.uk/en/training-and-prof-devel/educ-partne14/partner-ao/index.cfm>

MORE PEOPLE SWIMMING REGULARLY

Participation (NC)

- Sam Toon has started as Head of Product Development focusing on driving technology within swimming, as well as creating new revenue streams for the organisation. Her initial focus is on establishing partnerships with technology providers who can deliver entry-level (free/very cheap) swim tracking technology.
- Data Pool commercial terms have been agreed with 4 Global. Therefore, the trial of Data Pool will start imminently, with the national roll out planned for the autumn.
- The year one project plan has been agreed for the Social Swimming Project. A working group has been created, including Trustees from the Swimming Trust.
- The Finding Dory campaign has launched across the 420 pools. Initial feedback has been incredibly positive, with an average attendance of 17 people per session and growing.
- NC attended both the East Midlands and the North West board meetings, to update them on the participation strategy and direction, as well as to discuss the latest thinking on the ASA strategy for 2017-21. The strategic direction of the organisation was very positively received, with the regional feedback to be incorporated into future drafts.

- A National Operators conference took place at SportPark, focusing on ASA insight. It was very positively received. Due to its success, the Operators have requested further sessions, so more area specific conferences will take place throughout the year.
- 1Life National Conference took place at SportPark. There were multiple presentations from ASA staff, which highlights a significant improvement in relationship between the ASA and 1Life.
- NC met with the CEO of Freedom Leisure to establish a stronger relationship between the two organisations. Freedom highlighted the significant improvements that the ASA had shown during the previous six months. Were very positive about the new approach towards National Operators.

Insight (DJS)

- School Swimming research update: over 200 schools have responded, giving us a large dataset to analyse responses regarding how Schools currently deliver swimming to their pupils. We will present these back to the School Swimming Forum in September, whilst sharing the main insights with ASA colleagues through internal workshops.
- We have also received 1,000+ interviews from parents of reception, year 3 and year 6 children. From this, we can understand children's swimming abilities and how they develop by age in more detail than ever before. The insights will be presented in September this year.
- Our Swimming Pool Three Frontier Checklist is complete and being used by our Area Swim Managers to review their priority sites. It is helping to assess current performance across the Frontiers, develop action plans by site and will be conducted every six months, to measure the progress made by these sites.
- Our research into the England Under 19's Men's Water Polo team has been well received by colleagues and provided much needed feedback to enhance the approach for the future.
- We had the inaugural meeting of the Aquatics Insight Group, featuring colleagues from Rowing, Canoeing, Triathlon, Yachting, RNLI and RLSS, where our insights were well received. Our Frontier Checklist received very positive feedback and is now being adapted to be used by other sports.

MORE MEDALS ON THE WORLD STAGE

Talent (JMN)

- English swimmers won one gold and two bronze medals at the World Junior Open Water Championships. All swimmers, with the exception of Gordon Mason, are involved with England Programme Activities or have been in the recent past.
- An information booklet outlining the 2016/17 England programme activities has recently been launched.
- Following the Paralympics, we will be launching English Para-Swimming records for IPC events only.

Synchro (JMN)

- The UK Sport bid for synchro has been submitted. Recent results should help demonstrate synchros future strength, with Great Britain's 13-15 duet, Kate Shortman and Isabelle Thorpe, achieving 5th place at the Mediterranean Cup in Israel.

Clubs (JMN)

- A swim21 Working Group was recently established in order to review existing elements, templates and guidance documents, as part of the decision to move to a two-year accreditation process later this year. The group will meet again on 5th August to finalise the swim21 essential elements and begin to discuss implementation of any proposed changes. We are not planning to significantly change swim21, and all necessary standards will be maintained. However, we believe that certain parts can be streamlined to make things easier for all involved.

- The ASA Rip Entry CPD is a new diving CPD aimed at coaches of all levels to increase the quality and frequency of the 'rip entry.' This is the only CPD available in diving at the moment and so there is a high demand for further coach development.
- Sharon Lock is developing an Open Water plan, linked to growing the discipline in clubs/ASA. She will be liaising with key open water personnel to ensure its viability. The first priority is to create content about open water on our website, containing relevant and co-ordinated information which will channel swimmers/enquiries to the right people/places, answer questions and increase interest.

MARKETING, LEGAL, GOVERNANCE, FINANCE, OPERATIONAL

Marketing and Sponsorship (MT)

- Four month review on the new consumer-facing website for learn to swim, 'Learn to Swim Companion', has seen a large increase in visitor numbers - from 8.6k to 33k. Unique visitors overall are 92k, with 125k visits across the site. 69% of these visitors are new, which means we are succeeding in reaching new audiences with our consumer-facing messages.
- The ASA National Age Group Diving Championships took place at Ponds Forge on 7-10 July. In total 217 divers from 25 clubs participated with 630 dive entries, which is an increase from 2015, where the total was 586.
- The ASA Open Water Festival took place on the 23-24 July, with significantly increased entries for the National Age Group events (2016: 355, 2015: 175). An increase was also seen in the National Masters events (2016: 194, 2015: 166) and additional competitors entered for the new 1500m Challenge (2016: 51).
- Nominations for the ASA Aquatics Awards will close on 10 August and to date 284 nominations have already been received from across the aquatics community.

Business Support Services (JP)

- Q1 results show us performing as expected and slightly favourable vs. budget.
- We are proceeding with the pay & grading review as planned.
- IT is getting ready to support the team out in Rio 24/7.

Please contact Louise Barnes on louise.barnes@swimming.org with any enquiries and for further details.

AFFILIATION FEES

A PURPOSE OF REPORT

To remind the Board of its previous decision about the withdrawal of the affiliation fee “holiday” .

B PROPOSED ACTION

The Board is requested to NOTE the report.

C SUPPORTING INFORMATION

- 1 Members will remember that the ASA decided, last year, to end the membership fee “holiday” which has hitherto been offered. The membership year is a calendar year. Hitherto, the ASA has levied no membership fee for new members notified by clubs after 30 September. Now, the ASA will require the full annual membership fee to be paid by any new member notified to Membership Services before the end of the year.
- 2 Members will also recall that the ASA asked regions whether they would follow suit, in respect of affiliation fees: ASA Membership Services collects affiliation fees on behalf of most, if not all, regions, and sub-regions, where they levy fees. The Board considered this matter at its meeting in November 2015, when it decided that further clarification of the details would be required before a decision could be reached.
- 3 The Board considered the issue further at its meeting in March 2016, when it noted correspondence between London Region and the then Chief Executive of the ASA. It was clear from this correspondence that there would be no “change of heart” on the part of the ASA. It was then proposed that the Region follow the lead of the ASA, and this was agreed.
- 4 The majority of regions have decided to follow the lead of the ASA, although some, like East Midlands, did so reluctantly: that Region was unhappy with the change, but felt that clubs would struggle to understand 2 different regimes in play in the Region. However, 2 regions have decided not to follow suit for the time being - London and South West. The South West Region will review its decision later this year. The South Western Board felt that it did not have sufficient information to reach a conclusion, despite what ASA Membership Services had stated, for instance, that clubs were deliberately delaying membership returns to take advantage of the fee holiday.
- 5 It was suggested at the last meeting, by reference to the landscape sheet of “Matters arising”, that a decision on this matter was outstanding. That would appear not to be the case, although it is interesting to observe that 2 regions have, certainly for the time being, rejected the ASA approach to this issue.

Please be aware of the invitation below. If Ms Williams picks a date on which I am unavailable, would you be able to attend in my place? It seems to me that the subject matter could be of interest to you ...

Bryony

Please include this on the agenda for the next Board meeting.

Ms Williams

Dave Fletcher has forwarded your e-mail below to his fellow regional chairmen.

Of your suggested dates, I could make 19 September for a meeting, but not the others. That said, I could probably secure the attendance of a locum, on the other dates.

Subject: RE: Could the brand review be included on the Regional Forum agenda, 8th September?

Hi Dave,

Thank you so much for your encouraging reply. We are all partners in swimming, so we wouldn't want to progress without input from the Regions on such an important issue.

We will definitely be consulting with our wider audiences to get industry wide feedback on the review.

Our planned consultations will include clubs membership (over 18s), swim schools, local pool operators and, of course, staff.

To make the best use of resources, the above consultations will be online.

Where limited resources allow, we are also discussing face to face, for example with a number of national operators to gain a more in depth understanding of their issues.

I totally understand how busy everyone is and that agendas for meetings have already been finalised. Not a problem.

The best approach for everyone would appear to be a separate half day meeting at SportPark, with a presentation, workshop and face to face consultation to help us truly understand the regions views, needs and concerns. Ideally we would like to invite Chairs, but a nominated regional representative would be very welcome to attend if time is a problem.

If this is suitable, I'd appreciate your help in selecting the right dates for everyone - here are some suggestions to avoid clashes with other key meetings, but do advise:

Wed 14 Sept; Mon 19 Sept, Tues 20 Sept, Wed 21 Sept.

We could start around 11.00 am to allow time for people to get here and finish around 3.00 pm to enable people to get back home.

I'm hoping not to disrupt normal day to day routines too much, so do suggest improvements.

If people are really stuck for time, we could offer a web ex presentation instead, although this wouldn't support workshop elements.

Once we have agreed dates/timings, would you be able to advise on the best way to get the invitation out to everyone?

Happy to discuss further, and thanks for your support Dave.

Kind regards,

Karen

Subject: RE: Could the brand review be included on the Regional Forum agenda, 8th September?

Karen

Thank you for your email and my apologies for the tardy reply. It's excellent that you want to consult the regional chairs but please, please think about how you will consider the wider, internal audience.

The Regional Chairs are indeed meeting on the 8 September and are very interested in the brand review – so much so that they would welcome the opportunity to get an update and discuss the various issues. However, our agenda is very full at the moment and we agreed to delay discussion of the brand review until later in the year. If it is urgent, I can consult my colleagues to see whether they are willing to change the agenda and/or the timings.

You can, of course, invite the Chairs to a meeting in Loughborough or possibly in the margins of ASA Council in October. But please do remember that we are busy people and, as volunteers, several of us (and members of our Regional Boards) have commitments to our employers which restricts our availability somewhat.

I urge you to engage directly with other Regional Board Members – and indeed the county associations, the clubs and the club members – by asking/offering to attend meetings in the regions. For example,

- London Region has a Club Chairs Forum which (if the Forum Chair agrees to put our on the agenda) would be a chance to engage with the clubs;
- I would be content to give you a slot on my region's Board meeting (though again the September meeting has a very full agenda); and
- the county associations may well be willing to let you attend their meetings

Let me know if you would like me to ask my colleagues if they are able to accommodate you at our next meeting or would like help in engaging with the wider London region.

Regards,

Subject: Could the brand review be included on the Regional Forum agenda, 8th September?

Hi Mr Fletcher,

Not had the pleasure of making your acquaintance yet, so I do hope it's ok to contact you by email?

My name is Karen and I work with Mike Thompson in the marketing department of the ASA. I know you will have had conversations with both Mike and Mark Burgess about the brand and I'd like to ask your advice about the most appropriate way to discuss the review with all of the regions. We'd like time to present some key facts, update you all on what's happening and most importantly, ask for your opinions and thoughts on the development of the brand to support swimming in the future.

Jane Nickerson has suggested inviting all regional chairs to a meeting to discuss, but I realised that the Regional Forum is coming up shortly, on the 8th September.

Would it be possible to book in some time on your agenda? I realise at this stage it may not, but thought I'd ask. Otherwise would it be possible to invite all Regional Chairs to SportPark to discuss at another date? What would you suggest?

Time-wise, I'd estimate about 30mins for presentation and questions, plus another 30 – 60 mins of 1:1 consultation on a set of 5 key questions if time allows – otherwise I'd find another way of handling the 1:1s.

Do let me know if it is possible to be included onto the agenda – and if you'd like me to give you a call to run through this idea in more detail, just let me know.

Kind regards

Karen Williams

Hi Roger

I can assure you we will not be removing Swim21 status and apologize for not confirming this earlier.

We also appreciate the demand issue and this is something we are addressing. However, maintaining quality means we need to ensure we have tutors with the right skills and for Level 3 we need to ensure we can provide the right attachments.

Best wishes

Thank you for response, below, which the Regional Management Board considered at its meeting last month. I apologise that I have not reverted to you until now.

In noting the response, the Board indicated its continued concern that demand outstrips supply for courses, a situation which it will monitor, going forward. The Board noted that implementation of the new scheme is scheduled for October 2916, and very much hopes that "implementation" means courses being available from that date.

The Board feels that one of the Region's questions remains unanswered. Some Swim21 accredited club have achieved that status with coaches who have obtained qualifications from providers other than the IoS. Will those clubs be at risk of losing their accreditation when the new coaching certificate regime is implemented?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Hi Roger

Thank you for your e-mail which indicates the level of concern there is in your region regarding the changes to the coaching qualifications. You raise some valid questions and this response aims to answer the questions and alleviate the concerns. Rather than provide a short answer to each point I think it may be helpful to provide some background and context to the situation. I appreciate you may already know a lot of this information but I feel it may be helpful to include the detail should you wish to circulate it further.

The ASA used to offer its own coaching certificates which were widely respected throughout the swimming community. (ASA Assistant Coach, Club Coach etc.) Some time ago a decision was taken to include these certificates on the Government qualification framework. (The name of the Framework has undergone frequent changes along with major changes to the structure of the qualification.) The original reason for including these on the Framework was to attract funding. However, funding rules change constantly and very few people, if any, wishing to take swimming coaching qualifications actually met the criteria for funding.

The Framework is used across all qualifications and there are many elements which have to be included in qualifications which have little, if any, relevance to swimming coaching or indeed sport. There are limited technical requirements as the majority of elements are generic across all qualifications and it is therefore left to individual tutors to manage the delivery of the vitally important technical areas.

The top coaches in Great Britain, including the GB Head Coach, who is arguably one of the best coach educators in the country has questioned why we use the Framework when the qualifications are not, in his view, fit for purpose. This sentiment has been echoed by the British Coaches Association and the England Talent Team.

We have consulted widely regarding removing the qualifications from the Framework in order to create our own certificates (we are unable to use the word qualification if we do not put them on the Framework.) The option to do this has been part of my presentation to the Sport Governing Board on at least two occasions, including the last meeting. There has been discussion at the SGB meetings about this and about taking them “in house.” This was agreed by the SGB and by the IoS following discussions with the BSCA, England Talent Coaches including the Officer responsible for Coach Development, British Swimming Coaches and NPD. The ASA Awarding Body Board is also aware of this decision and the IoS Board has also agreed it. I think the concern that the decision was taken by the Group Board alone is possibly due to presentation. The Sport Governing Board prefer me to make a presentation rather than provide papers and decisions are taken during the presentation. Minute 58.2.3 of the SGB Minutes of the meeting held on 14th May show the decision taken by the SGB on this matter. For ease of reference this minute reads:

Moving swimming coaching off the framework.

The COO gave background information on the paper being submitted to the Group Board requesting the removal of swimming coaching qualifications from the framework. It is felt the criteria on the framework does not meet the needs of swimming and is not fit for purpose. The COO had met with the BSCA, British Swimming elite coaches and others within the field who were supportive of the proposition. The SGB endorsed the proposal by the COO.

The work of the Workforce Development department falls across both boards with the Sport Governing Board responsible for the technical content and the Group Board responsible for the commercial outcomes. It was therefore felt sensible to put the recommendation to both Boards, having already agreed it with the IoS Board. The Group Board prefer papers for items requiring decision and therefore the paper with the recommendation was put to the Group Board whilst, as mentioned above, it was included in the presentation to the Sport Governing Board.

There are several reasons why the IoS is the only delivery partner for these certificates.

1. When qualifications are created and put on the framework they have to be available to any training provider. This has meant in the past that the ASA has taken the cost of developing the qualifications and other training organisations (working for their own profit) can simply lift them off the framework and use them by paying a relatively small annual fee to the ASA Awarding Body to become an Approved Centre.

2. We have little control over the delivery of these courses and no control over the resources they use (some have been known to “copy” the IoS resources.)

3. The IoS deliver coaching courses at cost without making a margin. Other providers obviously deliver courses to make a profit for their company/organisation.

4. The main reason for keeping the delivery to the IoS is that the IoS can call upon the expertise of the elite coaches to support this programme and is also using the elite coaches to ensure the content and resources are correct.

The ASA is currently producing additional tutors for the IoS and these will be specifically trained to deliver the new certificates.

The IoS does and is running the current courses for coaches. I appreciate more courses will be needed and we are working hard to increase capacity to meet demand. It is worth noting that other providers take the profit from courses whilst the IoS does not make a margin on coaching courses and all surplus from teaching courses is used for the benefit of the ASA.

You mention concerns about sponsors and stakeholders. It is unlikely this would become an issue in their eyes. We are simply reverting back to the National Governing Body for Swimming delivering coaching courses for their own sport based on the technical requirements of the sport. There will be one or two training providers who do not like this as it means they can no longer simply take a qualification developed (at a cost) by the ASA. Other providers can create their own course and content, produce their own resources should they so wish. However, these will not be ASA certificates and therefore not likely to be seen as valuable as the ASA certificate.

I hope this alleviates your concerns but please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Best wishes

Jane

The ASA South East Region Board has become aware of changes to the coaching certificate regime, as a result of a circular e-mail from Workforce Support to "educators". Having studied the e-mail, the Board has set out some questions, below, to which it would appreciate early answers from you.

Roger Penfold
Chairman
Regional Management Board
ASA South East Region

Questions on ASA Coaching Certificates

Why was this decision taken by the Group Board and the Senior Management Team?

What has been the involvement of the Sport Board in this decision?

At the ASA ACM in 2015, the South East Region expressed concern that the IoS would be run by the Group Board as a cash cow. Chris Bostock assured us that all decisions affecting the IoS would be the joint responsibility of both Boards.

Why is the IoS the only organisation able to deliver the course?

The IoS has been unable to provide enough course places to meet the demand from the sport thereby restricting both the development of the sport and the individual coaches that want to progress.

There are other providers that are delivering courses for swimming coach levels 1, 2 and 3 and there are coaches from the South East Region attending these courses. These providers are Approved Centres for delivering training. Is ASA/IoS now rescinding their approval?

This appears to be the ASA/IoS setting up a monopoly of provision. How do the ASA stakeholders and potential sponsors view the removal of business competition in this area?

The South East Region has repeatedly raised the issues about the delivery of courses by the IoS including questions at the ASA Annual Council Meetings in 2014 and 2015. The standard answer has been that the IoS will be delivering the new courses for swimming in January of the next year followed by the other disciplines. This has gone on for three years. This again appears to be the case. The IoS does not appear to be the best organisation to deliver these courses.

Will courses provided by other suppliers be recognised for club Swim21 submissions? Is it expected that some clubs will lose their Swim21 accreditation as a result of this move?

- 49.1 The Chairman reported that he recently attended a dinner hosted by Sport England for NGB chairs at which he received information on the new Sport England strategy and funding principles. It is expected that the code will require Boards to consist of a minimum of 30% of the minority gender by a given date. At present the Group Board does not comply with this. - 51.2 2017-2021 Group Strategy
- 51.2.1 The Chief Executive Officer presented the current draft of the 2017-2021 Strategy outlining the organisation's six objectives, the process, priorities, and context. It is expected a full draft will be available by the middle of July and the complete plan reviewed by both boards at the joint meeting in September. The strategic objectives were well received but it was agreed that some of the wording needed to be more aspirational in line with the organisation's vision and mission. The Chief Executive thanked the members for their input and agreed to review the wording in light of the comments received.
- 51.3 Sport England Investment Guide
- 51.3.1 The Chief Operating Officer presented an overview of the Sport England Investment Guide outlining the new approach Sport England intend to take. The Board discussed the principles set out in the guide and the requirement for the ASA to clearly set out their position. It was agreed that a briefing paper on key negotiating points would be prepared and circulated to the Group Board for comments/views by the end of Thursday 14th July.

The campaign is providing considerable media coverage in addition to encouraging families to the pool at no cost to the ASA, other than officer time.
- 52.3.2 The Chief Commercial & Marketing Officer gave a presentation on Brand Values. Following a discussion the Board approved the values as: Quality underpinned by togetherness, purpose and fun.
- 52.3.3 The Chief Commercial & Marketing Officer gave a presentation on sponsorship highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of our current offer and sales process. 53. May Outturn vs. Budget 16/17
- 53.1 The Chief Financial Officer presented the accounts to the end of May and confirmed the presentation of the accounts will be reviewed during the year.
- 53.2 The Chief Financial Officer stated that a more detailed forecast will be produced after quarter one.

- 53.3 It was agreed that in future the ARP will review the budget on a risk basis but will not formally approve the budget as this is outside their remit.
54. Any Other Business
- 54.1 Governance Review – The Chairman advised the Board that Sport England will be carrying out an on-site governance audit this year.
- 54.2 Board Appraisals – The Chairman set out the process for the Board appraisals which includes one to one meetings between the Chairman and each Board member, appraisal of the Chairman by the Senior Independent Board Member and one of the SGB representatives on the Group Board. A facilitated session of the whole Board will conclude the process. Anonymised information on the appraisals will be published on the website.
- 54.3 SLT Review - The Chief Executive Officer advised that a 360 degree review for the SLT will be carried out.
- 54.4 British Swimming - MOU discussions – It was agreed to defer these discussions until after the Olympic Games. It was noted that the responsibility for agreeing the MOU has been passed to the Chairs.
- 54.5 British Swimming Board – The meeting briefly discussed the appointment of the next ASA representative to the British Swimming Board. Some members felt that it is important to create stronger links between the ASA Group Board and British Swimming Board by ensuring one of the three ASA representatives on the British Swimming Board is a member of the ASA Group Board.

There being no further business the meeting closed.
